Al Ain University honouring distinguished students remotely

Al Ain University honored the Honor List students for the first semester of the academic year 2019-2020, during a virtual meeting organized by the Deanship of Student Affairs (Al Ain Campus) remotely in the presence of Prof. Ghaleb Al Refae, AAU President, Dr. Ibtehal Abu Rezeq, Dean of Students Affairs, students and their families.

The organization of this meeting was made to enhance communication with students and keep the scientific life going in spite of the pandemic situation due to Corona virus.

Al Refae stressed on the Al Ain University's keenness to pay attention to all students, especially the distinguished ones, pointing out that excellence is a trait that distinguishes the student from his peers, whether in the university or after graduation. He also thanked the students' families, as they are the main factor that contributes to students› excellence.
