Definitions	AAU: Al Ain University
Purpose	AAU Faculty members are promoted in accordance with the rules stated below in this policy statement, which includes performance in the areas of teaching, research, and community engagement
Scope	AAU academic faculty members.
Statement	AAU faculty members are promoted in accordance with the rules stated below which include performance in the areas of teaching, university and community engagement, and research. The faculty member's teaching performance is evaluated periodically by the students, Department Head, Deputy Dean, and College Dean. The faculty's commitment to the syllabus, creativity, and innovative teaching methods plays a great role in the evaluation. Moreover, the services the faculty member renders to both the University and the community are monitored. The level of involvement and the type of engagement contribute to the assessment. The faculty member's scholarly activity remains the most important factor in the promotion process. A faculty member applying for promotion needs to meet the requirements of research and publication as set by AAU. A faculty member shall only be entitled to apply for promotion after the completion of two years from his/her appointment as a full-time faculty member in AAU.
Procedures	Applications for promotion can be submitted during the first and second semesters. The college dean, in consultation with the academic department, should decide whether to proceed with the application within one month. Given that the committee decided to proceed with the application, the application should be forwarded to the central/ standing committee for appointment and promotion. A faculty member applying for promotion needs to obtain a rating of at least (good) in both the teaching and community service evaluation reports prior to sending the papers to the external referees. Promotion to the rank of Associate Professor In order to be promoted to the rank of associate professor, the candidate must fulfill the following conditions: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • He/she should have served a minimum of five years as a full-time assistant professor at AAU or any other accredited college or university, provided that the last two years of his /her service are at AAU. The faculty member may apply for promotion after having served for four years and six months instead of five, provided he/she meets the other requirements.

- Faculty members must submit a minimum of six scientific papers (indexed in Scopus). At least four of which should have been “published”; while the rest can be “accepted” for publication.
- All submitted publications must be within the faculty’s major and minor fields of specialization.
- Three of the published articles should be published in a first-order journal as defined by the university.
- The candidate should be the sole author (or first author) of at least three of the submitted journal article publications.
- At least four of the papers must be published, or accepted for publication, during the faculty’s work at AAU with the University’s name appearing on each of the papers.
