

Oct 12, 2016

AAU organized the “Third Books Exhibition” as a part of the events of the Reading Year 2016

In the context of supporting the initiative launched by the wise leadership of the United Arab Emirates to make 2016 a reading year, the- AAU Vice President- Dr. Abdulhafeed Belarabi inaugurated the “Third Books Exhibition” which has been organized by the Deanship of Student Affairs in Al Dhafra Hall at Abu Dhabi Campus, under the supervision of Dr. Iyad Abdul Majeed -Assistant Dean of Student Affairs, and in collaboration with: Zayed Centre for Studies and Research, Abu Dhabi Tourism & Culture Authority, Zayed House for Islamic Culture, The National Archives, United Arab Emirates of Culture & Knowledge Development, Hamaleel Media Foundation and Sharjah City for Humanitarian Services. Where it was presented with more than three thousand five hundred of book’s titles concerned with the heritage and history of the United Arab Emirates, as well as specialized books in the knowledge and science fields. The exhibition had a positive response from the academic faculties and students of the university. At the end of the exhibition, the Vice President thanked all the participants in recognition of their efforts and their cooperation.

It is noteworthy, that the event also included an Artistic Exhibition for different artistic paintings of students works.

Press Release Link