Mar 10, 2022

The Deanship of Student Affairs celebrates International Women's Day

The Deanship of Student Affairs at Al Ain University (Al Ain Campus) celebrated International Women's Day, which falls on March 8 of each year, by organizing an open day for the female academic and administrative staff, including various competitions, recreational games and by providing valuable gifts.

On this occasion, Prof. Ibtehal Abu Rezeq, Dean of Student Affairs, stated; "that every day is a woman's day and her achievements are to be celebrated," and confirmed that Al Ain University is keen to celebrate this day with the university's female employees in honor of them and in appreciation of their efforts and their positive role in all areas of society.

Press Release Link